

ACTON LEATHERTOWN FESTIVAL AND HERITAGE ACTON TO HOLD FIRST EVER DANCE NIGHT BEFORE 27TH ANNUAL FESTIVAL

Acton Leathertown Festival Dance to be Held at Acton Town Hall Centre

Acton, Ontario, (June 1st, 2018) — Acton Leathertown Festival, Halton Hills' largest street festival announced today that they, in conjunction with Heritage Acton will be holding a dance the night before the day of the 27th Annual Acton Leathertown Festival on August 11th, 2018 starting at 8pm at the Acton Town Hall Centre, 19 Willow Street North.

The Acton Leathertown Festival Dance is an excellent addition to the diverse entertainment line-up offered at the annual street festival. This dance will allow attendees to welcome in the 27th annual Acton Leathertown Festival in an upbeat and enthusiastic way by dancing the night away to local funk, soul, and R&B artists performing live at the historic venue.

The night of excitement will begin at 8pm with Cindy Lou and the Whos' as they build up energy for attendees leading up to the headlining performance of Matt Morgan & the Mayday who will take the stage at 9:30pm, continuing until midnight. The night of dancing, fun, and music will be accompanied with LCBO catering by well-known Acton restaurant, Tanners Pub & Grill.

Tickets for this fun-filled evening of live music and dance are for purchase on the Acton Leathertown Festival website. Attendees can choose to buy either a Dance Only ticket for $25 each ($30 at the door) or a super-valued Dine then Dance ticket for $45 each, allowing attendees to dine at any local downtown Acton restaurant of their choice before the dance by presenting their ticket. It is important to note that the Dine then Dance ticket has a $25 value which can be used at any restaurant in downtown Acton.

About Acton Leathertown Festival

The Leathertown Festival began in 1991 as a distinctive family event that allows the community, businesses, and people of Acton to showcase the best of Acton. Acton could be considered the last, true, small town in the GTA. You'll find quiet streets, eclectic shops and friendly locals. After more than 25 years, we continue to grow as a grassroots community initiative showing all that Acton has to offer.

We hope you will join us for the Acton Leathertown Festival in the beautiful and historic, Downtown Acton!

The 27th annual Acton Leathertown Festival will take place Sunday, August 12th, 2018 on Mill Street East, Acton, Ontario from 11am – 5pm. This year's festival will be headlined by 5x Juno Award Nominees Children's Album of the Year, Splash'N Boots. Their two performances will delight and entertain children and their families. Also local performers on three stages, unique craft and leather vendors, food vendors and festival type delights, and the popular Car Show will be on the street to amuse the thousands of visitors who attend the annual event. More information about the event, including show times and registration forms for vendors and the Car Show can be found at www.leathertownfestival.com.
